IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF ALASKA

RODNEY S. PEDERSON,

Appellant,

v.

ARCTIC SLOPE REGIONAL CORPORATION and MARY ELLEN AHMAOGAK,

Appellees.

Supreme Court No. S-17840

Superior Court No. 3AN-09-10971CI

NOTICE OF LODGING

The Record on Appeal appears to contain only the Plaintiff/Appellant's exhibits admitted at the two-day hearing held on November 18–19, 2019. With this Notice, Defendants/Appellees (Defendants) provide the Court with Defendants' exhibits admitted at the hearing.

Attached as Exhibit A is the trial court's Inventory and Receipt for the exhibits Defendants had marked and provided the court in advance of the hearing, and which the trial court returned to Defendants on or about September 28, 2020. It includes the court's copy of Defendants' Amended Exhibit List indicating which of Defendants' exhibits the trial court admitted into evidence.

Attached as Exhibit B are Defendants' original, admitted exhibits. Since they were returned to Defendants approximately two months ago, they have remained in the box in which they were delivered. All of them have affixed to them the original exhibit stickers marked by the Clerk showing that the exhibit was admitted. To avoid altering the original trial exhibits, the contents of Exhibit B have not been marked, only for the exhibit's cover page that is marked as "Exhibit B." Exhibit B includes the following trial exhibits:
